

1. One artwork always connected to only one media description, even it's a mixed media description and the mixed media is listed as a single option in the library.
2. Galleries display artworks as soon as they receive it and do not stock artworks, even they stock it, we don't record the relevant information since it is not required in the statement.
3. Parent style contains at least one child style and child style must have a parent style, even there may be new style in the future.
4. An artist may not have any artworks stores in MAU
5. One artwork is always created by one single registered artist, and therefore the income of one transaction can only be paid to one artist.
6. One gallery may have never exhibited any of artworks stored in MAU.
7. One exhibition may not attract any customers and a customer may have not attended any exhibitions, for example who has just registered.
8. One transaction is always be paid by only one customer.